Congress of Vienna

Unreadable or obviously rushed material WILL NOT BE GRADED. You may write your answers in pen or pencil. Colors besides dark blue or black will not be graded. This material cannot be made up or turned in late except for a verified absence. This homework is not a collaborative effort; you are obligated to work ON YOUR OWN. Any sharing or working together on this material will result in severe disciplinary action.

Napoleon fought in the wars which bear his name – Napoleonic – for over 20 years. After being defeated by the Nations of Great Britain, Prussia, Austria, and Russia in the Battle of Leipzig, Napoleon was exiled and his empire was divided up among the four victors.

This activity represents an attempt to redraw Europe and undo many of Napoleon's conquests. You have been asked to follow the steps listed below in recreating a map of Europe after the Congress of Vienna.

Use the map on the right hand side on page 240 in your textbook, or a similar suitable map from elsewhere, do the following

1. Create the boundaries and label the following countries on your map:

Portugal   Denmark
Spain   Ottoman Empire
Kingdom of the Two Sicilies   Austrian Empire
Sardinia, Saxony   Great Britain
Tuscany   Kingdom of Norway and Sweden
Papal States   Ireland
Switzerland   Russian Empire
Prussia   Finland
France   Belgium

2. Label the following bodies of water on your map:

Atlantic Ocean   North Sea
Baltic Sea   Mediterranean Sea
Black Sea

3. Label the following cities on your map:

Paris	Rome
Amsterdam	Madrid
London	Copenhagen
Vienna	Moscow
Stockholm	Berlin
Lisbon	Constantinople

4. With a red colored pencil, draw a thick RED LINE around the German Confederation

5. Color or shade the map to show the new boundaries of the 5 nations present at the Congress of Vienna

Austrian Empire – Shaded RED

Russian Empire – Shaded GREEN

Prussia – Shaded ORANGE

Great Britain – Shaded BLUE

France – Shaded YELLOW
