The French Revolution Begins

Unreadable or obviously rushed material WILL NOT BE GRADED. You may write your answers in pen or pencil. Colors besides dark blue or black will not be graded. This material cannot be made up or turned in late except for a verified absence. This homework is not a collaborative effort; you are obligated to work ON YOUR OWN. Any sharing or working together on this material will result in severe disciplinary action.

Analyzing Causes and Reorganizing Effect. As you read this section about the dawn of revolution in France, write notes to answer questions about the causes of the French Revolution. Each answer must consist of at least two to three fully developed sentences in a list or paragraph to receive full credit. You might want to go to the Internet to help fully develop your ideas.
