Whitney MUN IS members earn the credit for at least one of the Intermediate or Advanced conferences listed below a semester. Credit for the Advanced conferences can only be earned by physically attending.

Whitney 9th Graders taking the period 5 or 6 World History/MUN class must earn credit for at least two conference units in order to fulfill their conference obligations. They are only eligible for novice conferences in the First Semester. Exceptional delegates can attend an Intermediate conference by invitation only.

Middle-School students are under no minimum or maximum obligations.

Freshmen or IS delegates who go to more than the number of conferences they are eligible for do not get extra credit for attending, but they can elect to swap the grade instead.

The Whitney MUN will shoulder the cost of any one-day conference if there is a financial burden. However, the only way this program can exist is through the voluntary payment of fees. A student who declines to pay a fee can still get credit for the conference. In lieu of physically attending or participating, they must still prepare a research notebook for the conference and do an individual written assignment.

Parents are also expected to help with MUN by car-pooling for selected conferences. The legal paperwork for car-pooling is quick and easy to fill out. You'll find this material in RosenWorld.
